

Aquila Code of Conduct - Parents

Date published: Nov 2012

For Parents / Guardians

The club aims to create a positive and productive atmosphere for its members to train in. As such we would ask you to support us in this by adhering to the following code of conduct

With your child:

- Encourage your child to learn the rules and participate within them
- Reinforce good sportsmanship and respect for other competitors and performers
- Facilitate regular attendance and a punctual arrival and collection at both training and competitions.
- Always ensure your child is dressed appropriately for the activity and has plenty to drink
- Discourage challenging / arguing with officials
- Provide genuine praise for their efforts and progress.
- Help recognise positives in performance regardless of results

With the club:

- Pay fees on time or discuss promptly if there are any issues regarding payment.
- Keep the club informed if your child is ill or unable to attend sessions
- Inform the coach of any recent medical problems that could affect their training
- Discreetly make the coach aware of any other issues the child may be experiencing that could impact their performance
- Ensure you emergency contact details are always kept up to date.
- Discuss any concerns or questions with the coach at the end of the session. If you have any concerns relating to your child's coach then you can approach the club's welfare officer to discuss these
- Use correct and proper language at all times
- Publicly accept officials' judgements
